BSFS & Balticon Policy Statements

Harassment Policy

The Baltimore Science Fiction Society (BSFS) is dedicated to providing a comfortable and harassment-free environment for everyone at Balticon and other BSFS-sponsored events. In order to offer a welcoming and safe space for everyone, all attendees are required to be respectful of all others. Do not use slurs or derogatory comments about a person, group or category of people. This could include comments based on characteristics such as (but not limited to) actual or perceived race, national origin, ethnicity, sex, gender, sexual orientation, physical appearance, age, religion, ability, family structure, or marital status, or socioeconomic class.

BSFS wants its events to be safe and enjoyable for everyone. By attending a BSFS event, all individuals are required to abide by BSFS anti-harassment rules. Remember, by attending a BSFS event, including Balticon, you are agreeing to create a space that feels as safe as possible. This is done by respecting others' space—be it physical or social.

The complete text of the BSFS Harassment Policy is available in the BSFan and at <https://bsfs.org/policy.htm>.

Fog Machine Policy

Fog Machines are banned from Balticon unless their presence and use has been approved by the hotel in writing prior to the start of the convention. (Updated 7/11/2016.)

Alcohol at Balticon Open Events

No alcohol is allowed in open room parties or events at Balticon unless the alcohol is dispensed by a hotel employee (presumably sold by hotel as well) to ensure compliance with regulations of the local liquor board. (Updated 7/11/2016.)

Balticon Pet Policy

No pets are allowed in Balticon function space.

Gender Neutral Restrooms

By agreement between Balticon and the Renaissance Baltimore Harborplace Hotel, the restrooms near the Baltimore Ballroom (near Con-Suite) may be used by anyone during Balticon, regardless of gender identity or expression. If you prefer not to use an all-gender restroom, there are other gendered restrooms near the elevators on the 5th floor and on the 6th floor and ground floor of the hotel. (5/2018.)

Weapons Policy

All weapons, including but not limited to all swords, knives and replicas, projectile weapons including nerf toys and waterguns, must be peace bonded by designated convention personnel immediately upon the purchase of the weapon from a dealer or entering the hotel. It is your responsibility to be aware of and follow all laws regarding the possession of weapons. No sparring will be permitted in the convention. Balticon reserves the right to hold any weapons in violation until the end of the con. Failure to comply with this policy may result in the confiscation of your badge. Masquerade Costumers are exempted for the time spanning a half hour before the Masquerade to a half hour after the Masquerade.

Shoe Policy

The Renaissance Baltimore Harborplace Hotel requires shoes in all public areas of the hotel with the exception of the immediate pool area and the Masquerade green room (even on way to the pool). However, any shoe is acceptable including sandals, flip-flops, ballet flats and those yoga foot gloves with individual toes.

HAVE FUN, LEARN, SHARE, GROW, PLAY We play games...
 Our main goal is to have fun.
 We welcome all gamers from novice to experienced.
 We play games of all kinds, but mostly board games and card games.
 We are all very flexible and easy to get along with.
 We have members of all ages and from various gaming and non-gaming backgrounds.

Join us for ALPHABET SOUP sessions at the beautiful BSFS Building in the Highlandtown section of Baltimore City every 2nd and 4th Sunday noon to 6PM.

Love Tabletop Role-Playing Games?

Our Tabletop Role-playing Games (RPGs) meetup usually takes place the last Saturday of the month from 1:00-5:00 PM at the BSFS Building, 3310 E. Baltimore Street in Baltimore. We will be rotating through various tabletop Sci Fi RPGs. You are welcome if you love tabletop RPGs. Future events will include the Dr Who, Firefly, Stargate, Star Wars, and many other RPGs.

Never played an RPG before? You are most welcome. We will be running for all levels. We have a few experienced GMs, but are always looking for more. Premade characters will be available; we will run as many games as we have people for.

Check the calendar at www.bsfs.org/bsfscldr.htm.
Info: Matthew@bsfs.org.

When Leif Met Bigfoot: The Myth of the Norse Discovery of Sasquatch

Eve Siebert

In an attempt to extend the brief history of Bigfoot sightings, many proponents have sought evidence of earlier encounters in myth, folklore, and literature. Some claim Leif Eiriksson encountered Bigfoot while exploring the New World, providing Sasquatch a provenance reaching back to the Americas' first European visitors. This presentation will trace the origin of these claims and show how Bigfoot proponents have skewed the information actually provided by Norse sources.

Non-Linear Narratives

John Walker, T. Eric Bakutis, Ada Palmer, Steve Lubs (m)

The end is the beginning is the middle is... and sometimes THAT'S too straightforward! When an author tries to mix up the series of events, the results can be mind-blowing, confusing, or both. What are some non-linear narratives that have worked, what haven't, and how can a writer prepare to tackle one, themselves?

In this Sid Sackson classic, players roll dice and choose combinations tactically to close out three columns. The board has one column for each possible total of two dice, but the number of spaces in each column varies: the more probable a total, the more spaces in that column. A player can only advance three different columns in a turn but cannot advance a column which any player has reached the end space; if there are no legal plays, the turn ends with that turn's progress lost.

- Comic SFF: More Than Just Jokes
Tim Dodge, Doc Coleman, Robyn Wyrick (m), Andrew Fox
When creators try and tackle comedic science fiction and fantasy, they can become legends (Douglas Adams and Terry Pratchett), but often fail to do more than elicit groans. Televised SFF comedies like “Red Dwarf” and “Futurama” have incredibly loyal fanbases, yet are few in number. What is it so difficult to make speculative works funny, and why are they so beloved when they’re successful?

What Skeptics Need to Know about Postmodernism

Robert Blaskiewicz

In skeptical circles, postmodernism (or in its four-letter form, "pomo") is used mostly as an epithet and signifies a pseudo-intellectual philosophy that denies reality and generally leads clever people to say rather silly or nonsensical things. This talk looks at the origins and aims of postmodernism, explores what (if anything) can we learn from postmodernists, and hopefully will correct some misconceptions about postmodernism and philosophy that plague skeptical critics of pomo.

The Golden Age Reconsidered

Darrell Schweitzer, John Robison, Andrew Fox, Don Sakers (m)
Popular opinion on the Golden Age of Science Fiction (the 1930s and 40s) can swing from worship to revulsion and all points between. Looking back on a time when a genre was still being defined, what do these stories say about the world in which they were written, and how do they mesh with the world of today? - Learning Through World Creation
The process of world creation is complex, involving geology, geography, biology, sociology and more. In a classroom it can challenge students in a way that lets them use their creativity to the fullest. The skills they use during the process can enhance lessons in creative writing, science, social studies, and art in a way that teaches while allowing students to have fun.

Mon 2:00 PM (1h55m) [5] Federal Hill Table 1 Scheduled Game	Demo: The Heroes of Kaskaria Pyris (m) Evil trolls have stolen the treasure of the ancestors and the magical tribal amulet, now the Kaskarians fear the wrath of their ancestors. Brave heroes immediately set off with flying scaled griffins and fast cliff runners to reach the trolls' lair which lies at the bottom of the volcanic crater. The hero who plays their action cards cleverly, rescues as much treasure as possible, and snatches the magic amulet back from the evil trolls will become the big hero of Kaskaria!
Mon 2:00 PM (55m) [5] Guilford Literary: Panel	The Engineer as Hero Steve Lubs, Ann Pollack, Jim Beall, Christiana Ellis, Walt Boyes (m) A panel discussing examples of engineers who are heroes in SF and fantasy, such as Leo Graf in "Falling Free", Charles Sheffield's McAndrew, and of course, Scotty.
Mon 2:00 PM (55m) [5] Homeland Science: Presentation	It goes bump and makes gold: The story about gravity waves Inge Heyer Einstein was right, again! We will examine gravity, encounter things that go bump in the night (and day), and see what makes gold (and other cool stuff).
Mon 2:00 PM (55m) [5] Mt. Washington Literary: Panel	Writing Intriguing Characters DL Wainright, Michelle Sonnier, Jean Marie Ward, Joy Ward, Martin Berman-Gorvine (m) Without a character your readers can relate to, you don't have a story. What makes some characters draw them in and what elements make a compelling adversary? Can your readers really tell your secondary characters apart? In this workshop, you'll be given some tools to help you make strong, memorable characters and tweak yours through a guided exercise.
Mon 2:00 PM (55m) [5] Private Dining Room Gaming: Participatory	Tabletop Gaming Miniatures Painting 101 Lord Kron (m) Do you enjoy miniatures games or own a large number of figurines that need painting? Come to this panel to find out how many colors of paint you need for a figurine to look good on a tabletop, what primer to use, the different paint types out there, and when (and why) to use them. Models will be available for display, but feel free to bring your own to show and discuss!

Geysers Galore — Ocean Worlds of the Outer Solar System

Tim Livengood

As far back as the Voyager mission, we've known that something has been going on with the icy moons of the outer solar system. Evidence has been growing that these are more than just ice-covered worlds, they are ocean worlds — just not like the one we know.

Demo: Munchkin Panic

Pyris (m)

Munchkin Panic is a semi-cooperative board game that blends the all-for-one gameplay of Castle Panic and the all-for-me gameplay of Munchkin. The Munchkin monsters have found the Castle Panic towers and are on the rampage! Players need to combine cards to hit and slay the monsters before they destroy the castle.
